GUIDELINES

- Pennsylvania law allows a credit for sales and use tax legally owed and paid to another state, provided the other state grants a substantially similar credit for sales tax paid to Pennsylvania.
- Pennsylvania will recognize a credit for local sales and use tax paid to another state, only if the tax is collected by that state and paid under a provision of state law. This chart does not include local sales tax rates.
- The amount of the credit is equal to the tax paid to another reciprocal state, except that the credit may not exceed 6 percent statewide, 8 percent in Philadelphia and 7 percent in Allegheny County.
- Taxpayers who claim credits must present evidence showing the amount of sales tax paid to other states with legal claim to the tax.
