General Information

Extension Process for Individual Income Taxpayers

The extension process is automated so that all individual income taxpayers are given an extension of time to file their tax returns if certain payment requirements are met. Individual income taxpayers must have paid at least 80% of the tax due for the taxable year by the original due date for filing the return. See TIR 16-10.

Taxpayers Subject to the 4% Surtax

Starting with tax year January 1, 2023, Massachusetts residents must pay an additional 4% tax on the portion of their annual taxable income exceeding $1,000,000 and non-residents must pay it on the portion of their annual taxable income sourced to Massachusetts that exceeds $1,000,000. To be eligible for the automatic extension, such taxpayers must have paid at least 80% of the tax due for the taxable year, including the 4% surtax, by the original due date for filing the return.

If the 4% Surtax applies to you, it must be included in the total tax you expect to owe on Line 1 of the Worksheet for Tax Due to determine the amount due by the original due date. Note: For tax year 2023, your employer may not have withheld the 4% surtax from your wages. Further, if you are a member of a pass-through entity (PTE), the PTE might not have withheld the surtax on your distributive income.

When Should the Payment with Form M-4868 Be Submitted?

Will Interest and Penalties Be Due?

An extension of time to file an individual tax return does not extend the due date for payment of the tax. Interest will be charged on any tax not paid on or before the original due date. Any tax not paid within the extended period is subject to a penalty of 1% per month, up to a maximum of 25%, from the extended due date. If the extension is invalidated for failure to meet the 80% payment requirements then penalties and interest for a late return and late payment will be assessed from the original due date of the return.
